1. Which age segment of the population suffers disproportionately from hunger and malnutrition? Explain. Is this morally acceptable?

2. How is maternal health related to poverty, hunger, and malnutrition throughout the maternal life cycle? Explain.

3. Explain why diarrhea leads to dehydration death in many cases in the developing world.

4. In the USA, we spend 7% (on average) of our income on food. What percentage of their income do the poorest families in the developing world spend on food? What happens when food prices go up?

5. Explain four of the main reasons for global food price increases in the last several years.

6. According to the News Story, how can equality for women reduce world hunger? Explain.
7. Worldwide, who is more likely to be illiterate, women or men, and why?

8. What are two factors that have been shown to correlate with children being out of school? Explain.

9. From the video, what are three main elements contributing to the famine in Somalia? Explain.

10. Indicate the four Millennium Development Goals you think are most important and why.

11. According to the blog, what major Millennium Development Goals is Africa on track to achieve? What are two goals were not included in the original Millennium Declaration due to lack of consultation with Africans? Explain.

12. Explain the Food First Myth 1 argument: hunger is not due to a scarcity of food.
13. In World Hunger 12 myths what are the 3 arguments you find most compelling? Explain.

14. From the video, what does Frances Moore Lappe stress is the root of the problem in the developing world? Explain.

15. What was the role of colonization on the famines in Ireland or India? Explain who controlled the land, food production, and export.

16. How have wars exacerbated famine problems in Africa? Explain and give 2 examples.

17. What economic segment of the population suffers disproportionately in natural disasters, war, and famine? Why?

19. From the videos on Armenian Genocide and the Nazi Death Camps, why do you think so many of the corpses were extremely thin? Is this morally acceptable?

20. From the video on Genocide in Darfur, what is the political, economic, and cultural basis of that conflict? Explain.

21. Oxfam argues that hunger is not due to Natural Disaster or Overpopulations. What are the reasons they give for these arguments?

22. What five Disaster relief policies do Leathers and Foster recommend to avoid famine and starvation?

23. What is micronutrient malnutrition? What are the three most limiting micronutrients?

24. What is protein energy malnutrition? What are the two most extreme forms? Explain.
25. Explain the difference in the causes and symptoms of kwashiorkor and marasmus.

26. What are complementing proteins? Explain specifically what is being complemented, and give an example.

27. What are the causes of global overnutrition, and how can overnutrition and undernutrition coexist in the same country? Explain.

28. Explain the difference between RDA and EAR and why these two nutritional standards exist.

29. Is hunger and malnutrition morally acceptable? Why or why not?

30. In the Video on malnutrition and gender equality, why do the two twins have such different weights? Explain.