

GROUP ASSIGNMENTS: MONSANTO V. SCHMEISER

The link on the syllabus will take you to the case study on Monsanto v. Schmeiser. We will only be doing PART ONE of this study in class on Monday. Please read the study itself, and the pages associated with your group. Come to class prepared to present a case on behalf of your group to the Court hearing the case MONSANTO V. SCHMEISER. You should be prepared to argue that Percy Schmeiser should (or should not) be held liable for patent infringement for growing Monsanto's patented canola.
