Resev 580

Vocabulary List

- Audit Trail
- Border Crossing – crossing into something outside of your own culture – something that is not as familiar to you and your background (Bogdan & Biklen, 2003, p.84)
- Constant-Comparative Methodology
- Criterion Based Sampling (Lecompe & Preissle, 1993)
- Data = everything – it is your class notes, your journal, how you made decisions, all of that – this will be information that you will use to get to where you are going [Bruning, 2004, Class Discussion]
- Gatekeepers – access to a site
- Internal validity
- Knowledge claims – what are you claiming to be true
- Meta-statements talking and spontaneously reflecting and commenting on thoughts (Anderson & Jack, p. 21-22).ed
- Oppression – in qualitative research this is something that utilizes feminist theory
- Othering (Fine, 1998) Respecting the participant – not giving any information about oneself
- Othering (Fine, 1998 as cited in Merriam p. 69, 70).
- Outsider/Insider – it was important to have someone who is a part of the demographic being study and someone from the outside not attached to the demographic
- Peer Review
- Pluralism
- Privilege (Feminist Theory)
- Problematic
- Purposeful sampling - Patton, 1990
- Re-membering – highly descriptive and graphic – spiral process of thinking about the process and then going back to it (Tisdell, 71 in Merriam) – participants went back to reframe and reconfigure the meaning aspects of their childhood
- Saturation
- Subordination (Feminist Theory)
- Symbolism – Symbolic Interactionism
- Teasing
- Threats (Feminist Theory)
- Triangulation – permission from different sources of information to verify with your findings
- Warrants – Something you may have proposed – that it needs to be investigated more
- White Privilege (Feminist Theory)

UPDATED ON JUNE 3, 2004