CEAH Fellowships in the Arts and Humanities
Call for Proposals for a Fellowship in Spring 2016

Program Description
The CEAH invites proposals from associate or full professors to be selected as the 2016 CEAH Fellow in the Arts and Humanities. The intent of the fellowship is to distinguish a well-established ISU scholar who has recently completed a major peer-recognized creative or humanistic scholarly project, and who will present this research to the ISU community in a series of public lectures, colloquia, and workshops of her/his design. The activities of the CEAH Fellow in the Arts and Humanities will be promoted as an example of advanced creative and scholarly achievement in the arts and humanities at ISU.

Award funding of up to $10,000 will be negotiated as an FY16 grant account and/or course release (Spring 2016), based on the proposed activities for the fellowship period. This allocation must cover costs for all events the fellowship series.

Eligibility
Applicants must hold an appointment at the rank of associate or full professor with tenure in the College of Design or in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, with a home department in the arts and humanities disciplines.

Application Guidelines
The application process has two stages:

1. A 500-word Letter of Intent describing the research or creative scholarship that has recently been completed and that will form the theme of the Fellowship, along with description of proposed public activities during the fellowship. The applicant’s full C.V. must be attached. Proposals for funding teaching releases must be accompanied by an attached letter of support from the applicant’s departmental executive officer.
2. Applicants will be invited to a second stage of submitting a Full Proposal using a template provided by the CEAH. The full proposal will provide a more detailed narrative describing the finalist’s research/creative accomplishments, the intended activities during the fellowship, and estimated expenses.
3. Contact Christopher Hopkins, CEAH Director ceah_director@iastate.edu for questions regarding eligibility and appropriate fellowship expenses.

Submission
Letters of Intent should be sent electronically as a single PDF document to ceah_grants@iastate.edu.

Deadlines
Letters of Intent are due by 5:00 PM, Tuesday, September 8, 2015. The CEAH will contact applicants to submit full proposals with a deadline of October 1, 2015.

Award Notification
The CEAH will notify applicants and their department of the results of the full proposals no later than mid November.
