SMALL GRANT SUPPORT FOR SENIOR FACULTY

Program Description

CEAH provides grants ranging from $500-$1,000 to Senior Faculty to supplement research and creative activity in the arts and humanities. These grants provide modest assistance for projects that have the potential for future growth or that require a small investment of funds for completion. The intent of these grants is to supplement external funds, or to assist projects not yet ready to compete for external funds. Funds may be used for expenses such as travel to libraries or other research sites, small equipment purchases, short-term research assistance or other services.

Eligibility

Applicants must hold an appointment at the rank of Full Professor or above in the College of Design or the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, with a home department in the arts and humanities disciplines.

- The proposal must be readily legible, and margins, in all directions, must be at least an inch. Choice of font and line spacing is at the discretion of the applicant, however applicants are cautioned that readability is of paramount importance, and that both word and page limits must be followed.
