Date: Monday, Oct. 30
Time: 11 a.m.
Where: 2055 Hoover Hall
Format: 50 multiple-choice questions, each with five answers
Bring: A pencil with eraser
       Your ISU ID number
Test material: Chapters 6-9, 10 (pp. 326-346) in Newman
              Lectures from Sept. 27 to Oct. 27
              Videos shown in class

Chapter 6
Beauty standards
Impression management/dramaturgy
Albas & Albas’ “Aces and Bombers”
Luckenbill's study of homicide

Chapter 7
National Health and Social Life Survey
Megan Farmer’s guest lecture
Family concepts/the American family

Chapter 8
Deviance concepts and perspectives
Crime statistics
Labeling theory
Chambliss’ “The Saints and the Roughnecks”

Chapter 9
Social dilemmas
Bureaucracy
McDonaldization
The social organization of religious conversions

Chapter 10 (pp. 327-340)
Stratification concepts, perspectives, and patterns

The subtopics listed under each topic do not cover every question on the test. Be sure to be familiar with the PowerPoint slides used during lecture and the textbook’s photo essays, research features, micro-macro connections and key terms.