Date: Monday, May 2
Time: 2:15 p.m.
Where: MacKay 117
Format: 50 multiple-choice questions, each with five answers
Bring: A pencil with eraser
ISU ID number

Test material: Chapters 10 (pp. 341-361), Chapters 11-14 in Newman
Lectures from March 31-April 29
Videos shown in class

Some key topics

Chapter 10
Prof. Mulford’s guest lecture on poverty
Homelessness, including Snow & Anderson’s Down on Their Luck

Chapter 11
The concept of “race”/racial taxonomies
White privilege
Prof. Mulford’s guest lecture on prejudice and discrimination
Two videos: The Colors between Black & White and True Colors

Chapter 12
Doing gender
Prof. Cast’s guest lecture on the division of family labor
The male-female income gap
Video: The Fairer Sex?

Chapter 13
Demographic trends
Birth cohorts and generations and their effects on everyday life
Malthusian theory
Demographic transition theory

Chapter 14
Types of social movements
The development and consequences of social movements
Gamson’s The Meek Don’t Make It study

Campus riots
April 13 lecture

The topics listed under each chapter do not cover every question on the test. Be sure to be familiar with the videos shown in class and with the textbook’s photo essays, research features, micro-macro connections and key terms.