

Sociology 134, Section 17
Second exam review sheet

Date: Monday, March 31
Time: 11 a.m.

Where: 127 Curtiss Hall

Format: 50 multiple-choice questions, each with five answers
Bring: Pencils with erasers
Your ISU ID number

Test material: Chapters 6-9, 14
Lectures from Feb. 20-March 28
Videos shown in class

Chapter 6

Beauty standards
Impression management/dramaturgy
Luckenbill's study of homicide

Chapter 7

National Health and Social Life Survey
Megan Nielsen's guest lecture
Family concepts/the American family

Chapter 8

Deviance concepts and perspectives
Crime statistics
Labeling theory
Chambliss' "The Saints and the Roughnecks"
Power and deviance

Chapter 9

Social dilemmas
Bureaucracy
McDonaldization
The social organization of religious conversions

Chapter 14

Types of social movements
The development and consequences of social movements
Gamson's The Meek Don't Make It study

The subtopics listed under each topic do not cover every question on the test. Be sure to be familiar with the PowerPoint slides used during lecture and the textbook's photo essays, research features, micro-macro connections and key terms.